

No 81

Claim No 81.

Under Article 11. Treaty of 11th June 1866.
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Judy Low, ^{aged 36.} a Freedwoman of the Creek Nation, and a loyal refugee - (now the wife of Pearson Low, a freedman, who has no claim herein) being duly examined and sworn, (she understanding and conversing in the English language,) deposes and says: Whilst she was living on her place on the Canadian, about 15 miles from North Fork Town, and sometime in the month of August 1863, she was driven therefrom by the Rebels under General Cooper, and fled hastily, in the night time, to Fort Gibson, with Genl. Plant's Union troops - where she remained until the close of the war. Further;
at the time of her flight from home as aforesaid, she owned and possessed, and did necessarily abandon and lose, all the property hereinafter stated, and never afterwards recovered the same or any part thereof.

To Say:)

24	Team Horses,	Valued at $50 ea.	$ 200.00
6	Pigs large, grown,		40.00
Lot	House furniture, Bed Bedding, Ware. &c		50.00
making a total value of			$ 290.00
two hundred and ninety dollars.

Further this deponent saith not.

Judy Low.

The undersigned, Billy Casar &
Abe Price, Freedmen of the Creek Nation, and loyal Refugees, being jointly, duly examined and sworn,
(they understanding and conversing in the English language:) do depose and say: They are not interested in the claim of Judy Low in any pecuniary manner whatever: That they have heard the foregoing affidavit read to them, and know its contents are correct and true.
They further say that, of their own knowledge, the said
claimant did, at the time of her flight from her home, as aforesaid, own and possess, in her own right, and free
from any right or claim therein by her present husband, all the property set out in her deposition, and did necessarily abandon and lose the same as therein stated.

Further these deponents do not say.

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also the status of claimant: The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred; ruled as follows:-

Horses:-

$15.00. Each

Hogs:- grown:-

12.00 "

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

House furniture: bed, bedding, ware &c:- $25.00

In consideration of these, and all other facts, attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant -

Judy Low - Thirty seven dollars:-

$37.00
